

Information to be provided to Detainees/Families/Senior Person or Posted at the Address

ISAF Detention

To Detainee – Information about detention and reason for detention and Information Sheet at time of detention

- SOP 362 (see Rights of Detainee Form Appendix 2 Annex A)
 - The form does not say anything about rights to humane treatment etc
- Detention Operations and Notification Directive (DONND Encl 1)
 - The form says the detainee will be treated humanely and with respect
- NZ Guidance on Detention – requires the detainee be given an information sheet detailing his rights as a detainee (at time of detention)

To most senior family member/or most responsible person present (in the compound) or posted at the address/compound at time of detention – Information Sheet about the detention

- DONND (Encl 1) – Same form as given to detainee
- Night Raids Directive (Attachment 1 is the same as Encl 1 DONND)
- If posted then within 24 hours unless tactical situation does not permit follow up notification with local leader via BSO

To detainee when he arrives at place of detention – Information about detention and information sheet

- SOP 362 Annex C Para 6
 - To include rights under international law
 - The initial form handed to the detainee under SOP 362 does not say anything about rights at international law
 - NO further Performa is provided

Receipt for property seized

- To detainee? – Property seized during search of detainee (SOP 362 Annex A Para 1 e)
 - It talks about a search of the detained person and then says receipts are to be provided. The implication is to the detainee.
- To senior family member/person present or posted – any property seized from the detainee/compound (Night Raids Directive)
- If posted at the compound follow up notification required to local leader within 24 hours unless tactical situation does not permit via BSO

Receipt for property damaged

- To senior family member/person present or posted (Night Raids Directive) (and otherwise same as receipt for property seized)

ANSF Detention

Information Sheet about detention – to senior family member/person present or posted

- Night Raids Directive
 - Same form as is given to detainee when ISAF detains

Receipt for property seized – to most responsible person present or posted

- Night Raids Directive

Receipt for property damaged – to responsible person present or posted

- Night Raids Directive